

YNU Ooka International Residence Application Guideline (2020 Autumn International Students)

1. Eligibility criteria for application

- (A) At the time of moving-in must be enrolled (or enrolling) as a Student at YNU and either hold a “College Student” visa or present a proof of eligibility to change the visa status to “College Student”.
- (B) Loss of the status of international student at YNU will lead to move out order from the residence. (including: taking a leave of absence, suspension over 3 months and repeating more than one year)
- (C) In case of repeating a year, a one-year stay extension may be allowed after consulting with YNU. Repeating more than one year will lead to the loss of the living eligibility and move out order.
- (D) Failure to complete admission procedures within the assigned period will also lead to move out order from the residence.

* In case of any queries concerning eligibility to apply please contact YNU Student Support Center.

2. Regarding housing application

- (A) Application starts from Monday, September 7th, 2020.
- (B) Applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis and will be closed once the fixed numbers of rooms are booked.
- (C) The number of applications to be accepted
 - About 15 persons for Male, about 10 persons for Female
- (D) Any individual preferences with allocation of rooms will not be considered. Male student’s room can be on the 1st floor.
- (E) Applications will not be accepted when applying for any other dormitories, such as Tokiwadai International Residence, Minesawa International Student Dormitory and International Student House, at the same time.

3. Period of Residence

- (A) Duration of stay for undergraduate and graduate students is only permitted within the standard course period. Research students are only allowed to stay during the enrolled period. As a general rule, repeating more than one year will lead to the loss of the living eligibility and move out order.
- (B) Length of each contract is 2 years at longest.
- (C) Re-contract procedure is available after completion of the current contract.

- (D) No fee is charged for re-contract procedure.
 - (E) Duration of stay for undergraduate and graduate students is only permitted within 4 years for undergraduate / 5 years for graduate students. Even if the undergraduate student goes on to graduate school, the stay period cannot be extended automatically.
 - (F) Contracts ending in spring must terminate latest by March 25th, and in fall latest by September 25th.
- * 6-month or 1-year contract will be allowed in case the remaining enrollment period is less than 2 years.

10. Moving out

- (A) If you wish to cancel your contract during the contract period, 1 month advance notice to the management office will be required. 1 month rent and management fee will be charged from the date of the "Cancellation Notice" submission.
- (B) As this residence is a YNU student dormitory, if you wish to move out at the end of the semester, moving out the residence must be done latest by 25th in March (when you move out in spring) and 25th in September (when you move out in fall). Therefore, please be careful when to move to another student house or general property.

e.g. "Moving out of Ooka IR on October 3rd in order to moving into another apartment on October 3rd": ⇒In this case, the resident is not able to stay in Ooka IR until October 3rd but have to move out by September 25th in order to provide the room to incoming students from the beginning of fall semester.

- (C) In the term from March 26th to May 31st and from September 26th to November 30th, contract cancellation will be limited. If you are leaving on or after March 26th (when you move out in spring), the rent payment until May 31st will be needed. If you leave on or after September 26th (when you move out in fall), the rent payment until November 30th will be needed.

11. About novel coronavirus infectious disease correspondence

- (A) In order to prevent the spread of the novel coronavirus infection, there are necessary procedures and restrictions for entering the dormitory. Please check the following carefully and be sure to follow the instructions. Please be sure to check the latest information at the following URL, as the restrictions of the YNU may change depending on the situation.

https://www.ynu.ac.jp/about/president/message/message_03.html

(B) About online classes and campus entrance restrictions due to the influence of the new coronavirus

- ① Even if you temporarily return to your home country due to the cancellation of face-to-face classes or restrictions on campus entrance, we do not reduce or exempt dormitory expenses, such as rent and management fee, during your absence.
- ② Even if you cancel your contract for the above reasons, we will not refund the rent, management fee or move-in deposit. In addition, 1 month advance cancellation notice to the management office is required for cancellation of the contract, and rent for one month will be incurred from the date of cancellation notice submission.

(C) About moving in from Japan

- ① Body temperature measurement and health observation are required for 7 days before moving in, and for 2 weeks after moving in. Please note that you will not be able to move in until the body temperature measurement and health observation are completed for 7 days before moving in.
- ② Email or FAX the 「"Confirmation sheet of health status and overseas travel history to prevent the spread of Novel Coronavirus infection" and "Health Check Sheet for Prevention of the Spread of the Novel Coronavirus Infection" (Health Check Sheet)」 to the management office two days prior to your moving in. The content of your Health Check Sheet will be checked and the management office will respond as to whether or not you are allowed to move in.
- ③ Bring your Health Check Sheet to the dormitory on the day you move in and submit it to the management office. However, if you have a fever of 37.5°C or higher, or have cold symptoms the day before or on the day you move in, you will not be allowed to move in.
- ④ The health check sheet to be submitted will be emailed to the occupants. Please prepare the thermometer by yourself.
- ⑤ Please be sure to complete the body temperature measurement results on the health check sheet. If the body temperature is not measured or if there is any omission in the description, you will not be able to move in.

(D) About moving in from overseas

- ① At Yokohama National University, when entering from overseas, regardless of the risk level released by Ministry of Foreign Affairs, students are asked not to leave their residence and stay outside the campus for two weeks after entering Japan, and not to use public transportation (including taxis) in Japan. "Residence" here does not include the student dormitories. During this two-week period of staying in their residences, students are not allowed to enter the student dormitories. Students must find accommodation outside the student dormitory at their own expense. Additionally, to prevent the spread of infection, please refrain from asking your acquaintances in Japan to drive you so as to provide you with a means of transportation, or staying at the home of such acquaintances.

② Procedures for moving in

- As soon as you know the date you will enter Japan, contact the management office.
- Upon entering Japan, email or FAX your passport entry stamp, ticket stub, or another document showing the date of entry to the management office.
- Stay at accommodation outside the campus other than the student dormitories for two weeks. You cannot enter the dormitories during this period.
- For two weeks after you have entered Japan, check your body temperature and health status twice a day and fill in the Health Check Sheet. Additionally, avoid contact with friends, and be sure to wash your hands and strictly follow cough etiquette.
- Email or FAX the Health Check Sheet to the management office two days prior to your moving in. The content of your Health Check Sheet will be checked and the management office will respond as to whether or not you are allowed to move in.
- Bring your Health Check Sheet to the dormitory on the day you move in and submit it to the management office. However, if you have a fever of 37.5°C or higher, or have cold symptoms the day before or on the day you move in, you will not be allowed to move in.
- The health check sheet to be submitted will be emailed to the occupants. Please prepare the thermometer by yourself.
- Please be sure to complete the body temperature measurement results on the health check sheet. If the body temperature is not measured or if there is any omission in the description, you will not be able to move in.

- The above conditions and measures may be changed or alleviated depending on the future spread situation of infection.
